- 15.10 The Parties agree that neither Party should be required to defend itself in multiple forums. In the event that an Employee or either Party to this agreement files a complaint under any Alberta statute on the same or substantially the same facts and circumstances as those advanced under any grievance filed under this Article, the grievance may not be referred to arbitration.

ARTICLE 16

- 16.08 All accumulated time off shall be taken at a time that is mutually agreeable with the Employer and in accordance with the following schedule:

- (a) Banked time off earned between January 1 to December 31 of any year must be taken by the end of that year.
  - (b) Once the overtime is banked, it will not be paid out, however, where the banked time off cannot be taken in accordance with the above, the Employee will be paid the balance on the February 15 pay at the pay rate effect when the overtime was earned.
  - (c) If either the Employee or the Employer ends the employment relationship all banked hours will be paid out.
- 16.09 Overtime pay and banked overtime shall be calculated to the nearest quarter (1/4) hour and shall not be allowed twice for the same hours.
- 16.10 Overtime pay shall be calculated from the annual salary rate in effect at the time overtime is worked regardless of any subsequent retroactive change in that rate.

ARTICLE 17

If the injury causes the Employee to be absent from work, the Employee and the Employer shall complete the required forms for Workers' Compensation. If the claim is approved by the Workers' Compensation Board, the Employee shall be paid their regular full salary during the period the Employee is required to remain off work up to eighty (80) consecutive work days, provided that the Employee has assigned to the Employer, the monies due to the Employee from the Workers' Compensation Board due to injury or accident.

- 20.03 The eligibility period specified in Clause 20.01 shall not apply in the event of a recurrence of a disability due to a previously claimed injury, payable under this supplement, unless the Employee has not used the total eligibility period in which case the unexpended period of eligibility may be applied.
- 20.04 When a day designated as a paid holiday under Article 30 falls within a period of time an Employee is eligible to receive Workers' Compensation Supplement, it shall be counted as a day of Workers' Compensation Supplement, and under no circumstances shall an Employee receive any additional entitlement in respect of that day.
- 20.05 An Employee who is injured on the job during working hours and who is required to leave the job site for treatment, or is sent home as a result of such accident or injury, shall not suffer loss of pay for that day's work, regardless of the time of injury. That day shall not be deducted from the eligibility period specified in Clause 20.01.
- 20.06 The Parties agree that the Workers' Compensation Supplement is intended only for the purpose of protecting an Employee from loss of income while the Employee is unable to work because of injury

- 20.07 An Employee who receives Workers' Compensation benefits and who at the commencement of absence from work pursuant to Clause 20.01 is participating in the Employee Benefit Plans under Article 29 shall continue to be covered under these plans throughout the period the Employee is receiving Workers' Compensation benefits. - 23.06 An Employee who takes another position in the College will serve a trial period of six (6) months worked, in which to demonstrate the ability to fill the new position satisfactorily. During the trial period, if it is determined the Employee is unsuccessful, the Employee may either:
- (a) Return to the Employee's former position, at the Employee's request; or
  - (b) Be returned to the Employee's former position at the Employer's discretion.

In the circumstance where the former position is unavailable, the Employer shall assign the Employee to a similar, vacant position consistent with the Employee's abilities and/or qualifications, which may not be the same position or in the same area occupied prior to the trial period. The rate of pay for such a position shall be equivalent to that of the Employee's former position.

- 24.02 An Employee who is to be interviewed with respect to disciplinary action as referred to in Clause 24.01, shall be notified of the time and place of the interview and if desired by the Employee, the Employee may arrange to be accompanied by a Union Representative or Union Steward of their choice. When a Union Steward requires time off from work to accompany an Employee to an interview pursuant to this Clause, the Union Steward must obtain prior approval from the Employer to be absent from work, and if approval is granted, leave without loss of pay will be allowed.
- An Employee who has been subjected to disciplinary action may, after twenty-four (24) months of being actively at work from the date the disciplinary action was invoked, request that their personnel file be purged of any record of the disciplinary action. Such request will be granted providing:
- (a) the Employee's file does not contain any further record of disciplinary action during that twenty-four (24) months period; and
  - (b) the disciplinary action is not the subject of an unresolved grievance.
- 24.03 The Employer will have an Employee's personnel file made available at the office of the Executive Director, Human Resources and Health & Safety or designate for the Employee to examine the Employee's file, upon a request for the same being made by the Employee, once in every year and as well in the event of a grievance. The Employee may request a representative of the Union to be present at the time of the examination.
- 24.04 The personnel file referred to in this Article is the personnel file of an Employee maintained by the Employer. Except as provided hereinafter this file shall contain copies of all documentation pertaining to the Employee. The Parties mutually agree that no information pertaining to interview records, reference checks, or confidential information related to a diagnosis or prognosis concerning Employee eligibility for General Illness and/or Long Term Disability shall be contained in this file.
- 24.05 When an Employee has grieved a disciplinary action and a Designated Officer has either allowed the grievance or reduced the penalty levied against the griever, the personnel file of the Employee shall be amended to reflect this action, provided that this action results in the abandonment of the grievance. Where the griever appeals the disciplinary action to arbitration, the personnel file of the Employee shall be amended to reflect the award of the arbitrator or Arbitration Board.

24.06 Subject to Article 25, an Employee may be dismissed, suspended, demoted or given a written reprimand for just cause.

ARTICLE 25
Grievance Procedure

25.01 Definitions and Scope

- (a) "Grievance" means a difference arising out of the interpretation, application, operation or any contravention or alleged contravention of this Collective Agreement or as to whether any such difference can be the subject of arbitration.
- (b) "Policy Grievance" means a difference which seeks to enforce an obligation of the Employer to the Union, or the Union or its members to the Employer. A policy grievance shall not be an obligation that may or could have been subject of a grievance by an Employee.
- (c) Notwithstanding Sub-Clause 25.01(a), any complaint pertaining to a classification or the classification process, or the evaluation of an Employee's preparation, shall not be considered a grievance for the purposes of this Article and shall not be subject to the grievance process.
- (d) A complaint alleging harassment or discrimination may be presented as a grievance directly to Level 2.
- (e) A complaint alleging unjust treatment or unfair working conditions may be presented as a grievance directly to Level 2, and a decision given at Level 2 shall be final and binding on the Parties and all interested persons.
- (f) A grievance concerning the dismissal or termination of employment of a probationary Employee, or a grievance concerning a written reprimand, may be subject to the Grievance Procedure except that it shall not be a subject of arbitration at Level 3.
- (g) A grievance concerning the disciplinary dismissal of a Wage Employee may be submitted at Level 2 but not at any other Levels of the Grievance Procedure. Such a grievance shall be submitted in writing and the decision given by the Designated Officer at Level 2 shall be final and binding on the Parties and all interested persons.
- (h) "Days," when used in this Article, means calendar days.

25.02 Meetings during Grievance Procedure

- (a) A Union Steward shall not discuss a grievance, or leave the Employee's place of work to investigate a grievance during working hours without first obtaining permission from their supervisor to do so.

- (b) The Designated Officer or the aggrieved may request that a written grievance be discussed at Level 1 and/or Level 2 of the Grievance Procedure. A Union Representative or Union Steward shall be allowed to be present at these discussions, if desired by the griever. The griever's request for a discussion shall not be unreasonably denied. This discussion shall be recognized as the griever's opportunity to clarify the circumstances surrounding the Employee's grievance. When a request for discussion has been approved, leave with pay shall be allowed. However, the griever and any accompanying Union Steward shall obtain permission from their respective supervisors before leaving their respective workplace and immediately upon returning to their respective work places. Expenses incurred in attending the meeting may be claimed in accordance with the Employer's Finance Travel Expense, Hospitality and Public Disclosure Policy.

25.03 Grievance Process

The Executive Director, Human Resources and Health & Safety shall advise the Chapter Chair and the Union Representative (Membership Services Officer) of the name, title and mailing address of the Designated Officer for Levels 1 and 2 of this Grievance Procedure.

The Parties strongly encourage frank and thorough discussions to resolve differences, which might otherwise become formal grievances.

(a) Level 1

An Employee wishing to pursue a grievance, shall advise the Union to submit it in writing to the Designated Officer at Level 1 within fourteen (14) days of the date upon which the subject of the grievance occurred or the time the Employee first became aware of the subject of the grievance.

The Designated Officer shall reply in writing within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the grievance.

(b) Level 2

An Employee not satisfied with the reply at Level 1 shall, within fourteen (14) days of receipt of that decision, advise the Union to submit the Employee's grievance in writing to the Designated Officer at Level 2.

The Designated Officer at Level 2 shall reply in writing to the Employee within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the grievance at Level 2 and the Designated Officer shall submit a copy of the reply to the Union Representative (Membership Services Officer).

(c) Variance from Grievance Procedure

The level of commencement of a grievance may be varied up to and including Level 2 by written agreement between the Employer and the Union Representative (Membership Services Officer).

(d) Grievances involving Dismissal, Suspension without pay and Demotion shall be commenced at Level 2, unless otherwise agreed between the Parties pursuant to Sub-Clause 25.03(c) above.

(e) Policy Grievance

A Policy Grievance shall be submitted to the other Party within fourteen (14) days of the date upon which the alleged violation of the Collective Agreement has occurred, or within fourteen (14) days from the date upon which the aggrieved Party first became aware of the subject of the grievance.

Within thirty (30) days of filing a Policy Grievance, the Parties shall meet in an attempt to resolve the difference. Failure to resolve the Policy Grievance within thirty (30) days of filing shall entitle the aggrieved Party to advance the Policy Grievance to Level 3 within an additional fourteen (14) days.

Level 3 – Arbitration

- (a) If a settlement is not reached through the above proceedings, the Union (in the case of an Employee or Union grievance), and the Employer (in the case of an Employer grievance) may refer the grievance to arbitration by notice in writing that must be given within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the reply at the previous stage or level to which the grievance was advanced. Notice to the Employer shall be given to the President.
- (b) The submission of a grievance to arbitration shall be to an Arbitration Board of three (3) members, one (1) to be appointed by the Union, one (1) to be appointed by the Employer and a third (3rd), who shall act as Chairperson, to be mutually agreed upon by the other two (2), or to a single arbitrator, or to a mediator-arbitrator.
- (c) (i) The notice referred to in Sub-Clause 25.04(a) above, shall indicate which system of arbitration the Party wishes to follow, and state the name of its appointee to an Arbitration Board or suggest one or more names of persons it is willing to accept as a single arbitrator, or mediator-arbitrator, as the case may be;
- (ii) Upon receipt of the notice referred to in Sub-Clause 25.04(a) above, the other Party shall respond within seven (7) days, indicating which system of arbitration it finds acceptable in respect to the grievance. If the other Party does not respond within the said seven (7) days, the grievance will be dealt with by an Arbitration Board. If it is not agreed that a single arbitrator or mediator-arbitrator shall be used, the other Party shall state the name of its appointee to an Arbitration Board. The Party initiating the submission of the grievance to arbitration under 25.04(c)(i) above shall then, within seven (7) days, state the name of its appointee to an Arbitration Board. If the other Party fails to appoint its nominee to an Arbitration Board within fourteen (14) days, its nominee will be appointed by the Chairperson of the Public Service Employee Relations Board upon request of the Party submitting the grievance to arbitration. If the other Party agrees to a single arbitrator or mediator-arbitrator, it shall suggest one or more names of persons it is willing to accept as arbitrator or mediator-arbitrator.

- (d) Where the Parties have submitted a grievance to a mediator-arbitrator, they shall request the mediator-arbitrator to mediate between them and to encourage them to resolve any difference or differences raised by the grievance. If the mediator-arbitrator determines that the Parties will not resolve their differences, then the mediator-arbitrator is empowered to determine any and all differences and to issue a written award concerning the same. The Parties agree that unless it is otherwise agreed between them, any resolution reached with the assistance of a mediator- arbitrator, or any determination made by a mediator-arbitrator shall not establish a precedent for any other grievance, difference or dispute.
- (e) A single arbitrator or mediator-arbitrator shall have all of the same powers as an Arbitration Board. In such cases, the Party referring the grievance to arbitration, shall, instead of submitting the name of its nominee, submit the name of the arbitrator it wishes to suggest to the other Party. If agreement cannot be reached on the appointment of a single arbitrator or upon the appointment of a mediator-arbitrator, within seven (7) days, an Arbitration Board will be appointed in accordance with the provisions above.
- (f) Each Party to this Collective Agreement shall bear its own costs of arbitration, including the costs of its appointees to the Arbitration Board. The Parties shall bear equally the costs of Arbitration Board Chairpersons, single arbitrator and mediator-arbitrator.
- (g) The Employer shall grant an Employee leave of absence with pay for the purpose of attending the arbitration of their grievance. Except where a dismissal of the Employee is upheld by the arbitration decision, an Employee may claim their expenses incurred in attending the arbitration of their grievance in accordance with the Employer's Travel Expense, Hospitality and Public Disclosure Policy.
- (h) The Employer shall grant leave of absence with pay to a witness appearing under notice to attend at arbitration proceedings.

Power of Boards of Arbitration

- (a) Arbitration Boards, single arbitrators and mediator-arbitrators are empowered to decide grievances between the Parties or persons bound by the Collective Agreement.
- (b) Arbitration Boards, single arbitrators and mediator-arbitrators shall not add to, alter, modify or amend any part of the terms of the Collective Agreement by their decision, nor make any decision inconsistent with it nor to deal with any other matter that is not a proper matter for grievance under the Collective Agreement.
- (c) Arbitration Boards, single arbitrators and mediator-arbitrators shall confine their decisions solely to the precise issue submitted to them and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not so submitted.
- (d) When disciplinary action against an Employee is involved, the Arbitration Board, single arbitrators or mediator-arbitrators may vary the penalty as is considered just and reasonable under the circumstances.

- Laurentian Bank
- National Bank

the Alberta Union of Provincial Employees
Local 071, Chapter 009

Re: Workload

The Parties agree to the following and will remain in effect until June 30, 2024:

1. Any workload concerns should be addressed with an Employee's immediate supervisor. The Employee's Supervisor or designate shall meet with the Employee and, if so desired by the Employee, a representative of the Union to discuss and resolve the specifics of the concerns.
2. Fluctuations in workload are normal and acceptable as long as they do not become excessive. Excessive workloads are systemic and unmanageable workloads that span extended periods of at least twenty (20) consecutive work days.
3. Throughout workload discussions, the parties involved will look for ways to improve processes, create efficiencies, and assess resources available to respond to workload issues.
4. Any decisions deriving from workload discussions are not subject to Article 25 - Grievance Procedure.

Re: Contracting Out

The parties agree to the following:

In order to provide job security for current members of the bargaining unit, the Employer agrees it is not the intention to enter into any contracting out that directly results in the loss of any bargaining unit Employee's employment during the term of the Collective Agreement. However, if it becomes necessary to contract out the Union will be provided with as much notice as possible and with a minimum of ninety (90) calendar days notice wherever possible. The Union will be provided the opportunity to discuss any planned intent to contract out.

RE: Temporary Layoff and Reduction in Hours Due to Unforeseen Circumstances

1. This Letter applies to all Employees covered by this Collective Agreement.
2. For the purposes of this Letter, the following definitions shall apply:
  - a) "lay-off" is a temporary or permanent separation from employment
  - b) "similar position" are two or more employees performing the same or similar functions, in the same work unit and same location within a classification;
  - c) "FTE" is full time equivalent
3. The Employer, at its discretion may proceed with temporary layoff or reductions in FTE as a result of fire, flood, earthquake, pandemic or other natural disasters where:
  - a) There is a temporary shortage of work associated with the change in Employer operations; or
  - b) Ancillary services have been reduced or suspended; or
  - c) Employees are not required to perform critical services on campus and are not able to complete their regular duties or modified / alternative duties remotely; or
  - d) The funding source used to pay salaries is no longer available (e.g. cancelation of events, closure of facilities, etc.); or
  - e) The Employer determines that temporary layoffs or reductions in FTE are required.
4. Notice of temporary layoff and/or reduction in FTE will be provided in writing to the employee and will include the effective date. Every reasonable effort will be made to provide seven (7) calendar days' written notice for temporary layoff and/or reduction in FTE.
5. Employees subject to temporary layoff will not receive payment of salary during the period of layoff.
6. Employees subject to temporary layoff will not have access to General Illness provisions during the period of temporary layoff, nor shall they accrue Wellness Leave or vacation entitlements.

For the period of temporary layoff, Employees will maintain the Health and Dental benefits cost sharing in accordance with Article 29 – Employee Benefit Plans.
8. Employees subject to temporary reduced FTE will maintain Health and Dental benefits cost sharing based on their regular FTE in accordance with Article 29 – Employee Benefit Plans for the duration of the temporary reduction in FTE for a maximum of six (6) months. 12. Nothing in this Article prevents Northern Lakes College from proceeding with Position Abolishments or Terminations, including the early ending of a Temporary Position in accordance with the Collective Agreement.

15. It shall be the responsibility of the Employee to keep the Employer informed of their current address, personal e-mail and telephone number for recall purposes. The parties agree that a notice of recall may be issued to the last personal e-mail address provided by the employee to the Employer, and that service of such notice will be deemed to occur on that day that it is sent to the employee.
