The Employer will not tolerate bullying, harassment, or violence in the workplace from anyone and is committed to eliminating and doing everything reasonably practicable to prevent this inappropriate and unacceptable behavior. The Employer will appropriately investigate any allegations and take appropriate corrective action to address this conduct.

5.01 Workplace Harassment

Workplace harassment is objectionable or unwelcome conduct by an Employee that the Employee knew or ought reasonably to have known would harm or cause offence, humiliation, degradation, or embarrassment, or which generally causes a hostile, intimidating or abusive work environment or otherwise adversely affects the health and safety of an employee. Workplace harassment includes bullying, which is a form of harassment.

Harassment can also be a form of discrimination when it relates to a person's race, religious beliefs, colour, gender, gender identity, gender expression, physical disability, mental disability, age, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or any other protected ground of discrimination included in the Alberta Human Rights Act or Collective Agreement.

While harassment often involves a pattern of behaviour, in some circumstances, a single incident may be severe enough to constitute harassment.

Harassment does not refer to the normal exercise of management's right to manage including the management of day-to-day operations and performance at work and the application of discipline.

5.02 Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment means any single or repeated incidents of objectionable or unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, that an employee knows or ought reasonably to know would cause offence, humiliation, degradation, embarrassment or would reasonably be understood to place a condition of a sexual nature on the employment relationship. Sexual harassment is a form of sex-based discrimination.

While harassment often involves a pattern of behaviour, in some circumstances, a single incident may be severe enough to constitute harassment.

- 8.02 The Employer shall remit Union dues deducted from the pay of all Employees to the National Secretary-Treasurer of the Canadian Union of Public Employees by the first (1st) working day after the fifteenth (15th) calendar day in the following month. Where an accounting adjustment is necessary to correct an over- or under-payment of dues, it shall be effected in the succeeding month. 10.02 The Union shall have the right to have the assistance of representatives of the Canadian Union of Public Employees or any other advisors when dealing or negotiating with the Employer. Representatives of the Union or other advisors must obtain the prior permission of the Executive Director before attending upon the Employer's premises. Permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(a) Labour Management meetings;

(b) Health and Safety meetings, and;

(c) any meetings scheduled under Articles 9.02 and 13.02.

The Union shall have the right to have a CUPE National Representative at these meetings as well.

ARTICLE 11 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

It is the desire of the parties to this Collective Agreement that disputes be settled promptly. An Employee who feels that they have a grievance should first attempt to resolve it with their immediate Supervisor or Manager.

The parties will endeavor to resolve issues through problem solving prior to a grievance being filed.

11.02 At each step of the grievance procedure the Grievor shall have the right to be present and shall have the right to elect to involve a representative of the Union.

11.04 Up to two (2) Union Officer(s) or Shop Steward(s) shall be entitled to leave work during regular working hours to process grievances, up to and including arbitration, with no loss of pay. Permission to leave work during working hours for such purposes shall first be obtained from their Manager, the Director of Shelter Services or Executive Director, but permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

11.05 STEP 1

Either party may serve notice, in writing, on the other to commence the formal grievance procedure.

An aggrieved Employee or the Union shall present a grievance in writing to the Director of Shelter Services or a designate as determined by the Executive Director giving consideration to the nature of the complaint, within ten (10) days from the occurrence of the incident giving rise to the grievance. The Manager or designate shall arrange a meeting to hear the grievance within ten (10) days receipt of the grievance.

The Director of Shelter Services or designate shall reply in writing within ten (10) days of the meeting at Step 1.

11.06 STEP 2

If the grievance is not settled at Step 1, the Union and the aggrieved Employee shall present the grievance in writing to the Executive Director within ten (10) days of receipt of the Director of Shelter Services or designate's reply. The Executive Director shall meet to hear the grievance within ten (10) days of its receipt at Step 2 and shall reply to the grievance in writing within ten (10) days of the meeting at Step 2.

11.07 STEP 3

If the grievance is not settled at Step 2, the Union may refer the grievance to arbitration by written notice to the Employer, within ten (10) days of receipt of the reply of the Executive Director.

11.08 A policy grievance may be initiated by the Union or by the Employer where the dispute involves a question of general application or interpretation of the Collective Agreement. Except to avoid a multiplicity of like grievances, a policy grievance shall not include any matter that could have been the subject of an individual grievance.

11.09 The Union or the Employer shall present a policy grievance in writing at Step 1 of the Employee grievance procedure as set out herein, within ten (10) days of the occurrence of the incident giving rise to the grievance. Remaining provisions of the Employee grievance procedure will apply to the policy grievances. In the case of an Employer grievance it shall be presented to the President of the Union.

11.10 Time periods at any step of the grievance procedure may be extended if mutually agreed to in writing. Requests for extensions will not be unreasonably withheld.

- 11.11 Requirements for grievance meetings may be waived if mutually agreed to in writing.
- 11.12 If the Union represents an Employee in a grievance, the Employer shall not enter into negotiations to settle the grievance, either directly or indirectly with the aggrieved Employee, without the consent of the Union. The Union shall not be bound by any settlement to which it is not a party.
- 11.13 The Employer shall provide meeting facilities for any grievance meeting.
- 11.14 Any mutually agreed changes to this Collective Agreement shall form part of this Collective Agreement and are subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure.
- 11.15 All procedures and time limits set out in this Article are mandatory. In the event a grieving party fails to process a grievance within the time limits and in accordance with the procedures set forth herein, the grievance shall be considered finally resolved and abandoned. In the event a party responding to a grievance fails to reply to a grievance at any step within the time limits set forth herein, then the grievance shall be advanced to the next step forthwith.

ARTICLE 12 – ARBITRATION

- 12.01 The two (2) nominees to the Board of Arbitration shall attempt to agree upon a Chair of the Board of Arbitration within five (5) days of the last nominee's appointment.
- In the event either party fails to appoint a nominee within the time permitted by this Article, or the nominees fail to appoint a Chair within the time permitted by this Article, then either party may apply to the Director of Mediation Services, Alberta Labour Relations Board, to appoint a Chair.
- 12.02 Each party will bear the expenses of its nominee to the Board of Arbitration; the parties will share equally the fees and expenses of the Chair.
- 12.03 If both parties agree in advance, any grievance may be referred to a single arbitrator for resolution in lieu of a three (3) member arbitration board.
- 12.04 Time limits in this Article may be extended, but only by mutual agreement in writing.

- 12.05 All procedures and time limits set out in this Article are mandatory. In the event a grieving party fails to appoint its nominee within the time limit and in accordance with the procedure set forth herein, the grievance shall be considered finally resolved and abandoned. In the event the party responding to a grievance fails to reply by appointing its nominee, or the two (2) nominees fail to appoint a chair within the time limits set forth herein, then the grievance shall still proceed to arbitration and either party can elect to call for an appointment under Article 12.02.
- 12.06 Probationary Employees shall not have recourse to this arbitration procedure, nor may the Union pursue arbitration on their behalf.

ARTICLE 13 – DISCIPLINE

- 13.01 The Employer will discipline Employees only for just cause. The burden of proof of just cause will rest with the Employer. The Employer recognizes the value of progressive discipline and where appropriate will provide Employees with written warnings and recommendations for improvement before pursuing more serious disciplinary action.
- 13.02 An Employee who is to be interviewed by the Employer on a matter of discipline, or an investigation that could result in discipline, will be given the opportunity to be accompanied by a Shop Steward or other Union representative.
- 13.03 The Employer shall provide the Employee and Union with reasonable advance notice in writing of the interview. The notice shall include the reason, time and place of the interview.
- 13.04 Employees shall be advised in writing when disciplinary action is taken against them. The reasons for such action and a copy of such correspondence will be placed on the Employee's personnel file and a copy shall be sent to the Employee. A copy shall be sent to the Union within five (5) days of the disciplinary action being taken.
- 13.05 An Employee who has been disciplined shall have their personnel file purged of letters of counsel or records of discipline after twelve (12) months providing that during the period no further records of discipline have been issued. Employees shall receive copies of any records of discipline.

13.06 Personnel Files

Upon written request, the Employer will provide access to an Employee's personnel file during normal business hours. Access shall be provided within two (2) working days or a reason given why it may take longer. If requested, the Employee may have a representative of the Union present when reviewing the personnel file.

No disciplinary documents from a personnel file shall be relied upon or entered as evidence in any grievance or arbitration proceeding unless the Employee and the Union have received a copy in accordance with Article 13.04 of this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 14 – SENIORITY AND PROBATION

14.01 Seniority

"Seniority" for regular full-time and part-time Employees is defined as the length of continuous service in the bargaining unit, from date-of-hire. Continuous service with the Employer prior to certification of the Union shall be included in measuring seniority. Seniority shall operate on a bargaining-unit-wide basis. An Employee's seniority date shall be continued during a leave of absence paid by the Employer.

A casual Employee achieving a regular position shall have seniority credited back to the Employee's number of hours worked from the date-of-hire as a casual Employee provided there was no break in service of three (3) months or more.

14.02 Loss of Seniority

All accumulated seniority shall be lost and the employment relationship terminated in any of the following events:

- (a) discharge for just cause, without reinstatement;
- (b) resignation;
- (c) layoff in excess of twenty-four (24) months.

14.03 Probation

All new Employees covered by this Collective Agreement shall serve a probationary period of 480 hours or six months, whichever occurs first. Probationary hours will be considered as time worked from date-of-hire.

14.04 Orientation and Appraisal

Probationary Employees will be provided with training and orientation for the duties of their job classification.

Probationary Employees will be provided with feedback of their performance regularly and will be informed of their progress or any deficiencies in performance.

If, in the opinion of the Employer, a new Employee on probation is found to be unsatisfactory, that Employee may be terminated without notice.

ARTICLE 15 – POSTING, PROMOTIONS AND TRANSFERS

15.01 Posted Vacancies

When the Employer elects to create and fill a new position, the Employer shall email a copy of the position(s) to each Employee at an Employer provided email address and will remain open for seven (7) days. A copy of the notice shall be issued to the Union. All external postings shall also follow the process outlined above.

15.02 All vacancies, including temporary vacancies, created by an Employee's absence that are expected to exceed 6 months, may be posted concurrently, with preference given to qualified internal candidates.

15.03 In making appointments to new or vacant positions within the jurisdiction of the bargaining unit, it is agreed that where the required qualifications of two (2) or more applicants are approximately equal, seniority shall govern.

15.04 In assessing the required qualifications of applicants, the Employer shall consider each individual's relevant education, experience, abilities, skills, performance, and knowledge for the vacant position. Such qualifications may not be established in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner.

15.05 An Employee selected to fill a new or vacant position in a different classification shall be notified if they are required to serve a trial period. This trial period may be up to ninety (90) calendar days and will commence on the first day of work in the new position. At any time during, or at the conclusion of the trial period, and at the election of the Employee, the Employee may request to return to the position they occupied prior to their appointment. Any other Employee promoted or transferred because of the Employee's initial appointment shall also be returned to their former position.

15.06 Consideration for promotion or transfer may be given to the senior applicant who may not possess the required qualifications, but who will obtain the required qualifications within a reasonable period of time as specified by the Director. An Employee who is promoted or transferred pursuant to this provision and who subsequently fails to achieve the required qualifications within the prescribed time period may, at the sole discretion of the Employer and without access to the grievance procedure, be returned to that Employee's former position.

15.07 Within seven (7) calendar days of the date-of-appointment to a vacant position, the name of the successful applicant shall be emailed to each Employee at the Employer provided email address. The Employer shall notify the Union within seven (7) days in writing of all promotions, demotions, hiring, layoffs, transfers, recalls, resignations, retirement, deaths or other terminations of employment, in respect of all Employees covered by this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 16 – LAYOFF AND RECALL

16.01 Layoffs

Subject to clause 15.03, in the event of layoffs, Employees shall be laid off in reverse order of their bargaining unit wide seniority.

The Employer shall issue layoff notices to the Employee's in affected positions and classifications twenty-one (21) days in advance of the intended date of layoff or provide payment of wages in lieu.

16.02 Displacement

Upon receipt of a layoff notice, an Employee shall have the option to displace a less senior Employee in same classification or another classification provided the Employee is qualified.

16.03 Recall

(a) Recall shall be in order of seniority, provided those being recalled have the ability and qualifications to do the work. Recall rights shall extend to those permanent Employees laid off. Recall shall be to the Employee's former position and former full-time equivalency (FTE) and pay step that would have been achieved had the Employee not been laid off.

- (b) New Employees shall not be hired until laid off permanent Employees with recall rights have been given the opportunity to be recalled in whole, or in part.

An Employee accepting a position having a FTE less than that Employee's former position shall maintain their recall rights to a position with the equivalent FTE of their former position.

In the event an Employee's former position is not reinstated, the Employee shall be offered an available equivalent permanent position, for which that Employee is qualified. The decision as to whether an Employee is qualified shall rest with the Executive Director. Posting requirements shall be waived.

- (c) Employees with the right of recall shall be notified of all job postings prior to external postings.
- (d) Recall rights and obligations shall expire upon:
 - (i) an Employee accepting a permanent position having the same classification and equivalent FTE of that Employee's former position;
 - (ii) the expiration of twenty-four (24) months from the date of layoff and the Employee has not been recalled in whole or in part to a permanent position;
 - (iii) refusal to accept a recall to that Employee's former position.
- (e) Employees on layoff must keep the Employer informed of their current address and telephone number. Laid-off Employees who fail to keep the Employer so informed, or who fail to return to work within ten (10) days of receiving notice to report, shall forfeit all recall and seniority rights under this Collective Agreement, except that in the event of a medical or family emergency, the Employee shall be permitted an additional ten (10) days to report to work.
- (f) Casual Shifts While on Lay-Off:
 - (i) Employees on layoff shall indicate in writing to the Employer their desire and availability to work casual shifts,
 - (ii) When an Employee on layoff chooses to work casual shifts, the Employee will be governed by the casual terms of the Collective Agreement.

- (iii) Employees working casual shifts in a lower paid classification will maintain their current grid step, with the wage rate commensurate with that grid step in the lower paid classification.

ARTICLE 17 – HOURS OF WORK, SCHEDULES, AND SHIFT PREMIUMS

17.01 Guiding Principles

It is understood and agreed that hours of work must provide for continuous operations and Employees may be required to work various shifts throughout the twenty-four (24) hour period of the day and the seven (7) day period of the week.

17.02 Normal Hours of Work

- a) Normal hours of work for all staff except CIW's will be eight (8) hours per shift or an average of forty (40) hours per week for full-time Employees.
- b) Normal hours of work for CIW's may be ten (10) hours per shift for an average of forty (40) hours per week for full-time staff.

Changes may be made to the normal hours of work where mutually agreed between the Employer and Union.

17.03 Schedules

The Employer shall schedule days off for full-time Employees consecutively except where they work a non-standard work-week schedule.

Modified hours of work may be implemented where mutually agreed between the Employer and the Union (example twelve (12) hour shifts).

17.04 Posting of Shift Schedules

Work schedules covering up to four (4) weeks, will be posted two (2) weeks in advance. Employee requests for specific days off must be submitted to the administrator at least one (1) week in advance of the schedule posting. Any changes to a shift schedule must be approved by the Employer.

17.05 Schedule Changes

This provision shall apply when an Employee does not agree to a change in shift schedule and is directed to work the shift with less than seven (7) calendar days' notice. The Employee shall be compensated at one and one half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay as follows:

- (a) for all hours worked on the first shift of the changed schedule when the scheduled days of work are changed;
 - (b) for all hours worked when the shift start time is altered, the above rate shall apply to the difference between the regular start time and the altered start time.
- 17.06 The foregoing shall not apply to casual or part-time Employees outside their scheduled hours.
- 17.07 There shall be no split shifts during the term of this Collective Agreement.
- 17.08 Staff Meetings and Training
- The Employer recognizes that it has a responsibility to encourage the development of Employee capability. To this end, the Employer agrees to hold regular staff meetings which are mandatory and paid time for permanent Employees. Staff meetings are optional and paid for other staff per Article 18 – Overtime. Staff meetings for Employees that have worked either the night shift prior to a meeting or the night shift following a meeting are optional and paid as per Article 18 – Overtime.
- 17.09 When the Employer cancels a shift with less than three (3) hours' notice, the Employee shall be compensated for the wages lost for the entire shift.
- 17.10 On shifts that are up to five (5) hours or less, the Employer recognizes one (1) twenty (20) minute paid break. On shifts that are more than five (5) hours but not more than ten (10) hours, the Employer recognizes two (2) fifteen (15) minute paid breaks and one (1) thirty (30) minute paid meal break. Where possible, such meal periods shall not be scheduled to occur in the first or last hour of the shift.
- 17.11 The Employer shall arrange shifts in such a way that there is a fifteen (15) minute overlap between shifts of Crisis Intervention Workers in order for them to exchange information. This requirement shall not apply on holidays recognized under Article 19 – General Holidays of this Collective Agreement, nor in the event of emergency, unscheduled absence, or other unplanned event.
- 17.12 An Employee may trade shifts with another equally qualified Employee provided that five (5) business days written notice is given to the Manager, subject to Employer approval, and that no additional costs are required and operational requirements are met. Such approval will not be unreasonably denied.
- 17.13 An Employee shall be provided a minimum of eight (8) hours rest between shifts by the Employer. The Employee may choose to work extra hours.

17.14 Employees who report for any scheduled shift will be guaranteed at least four (4) hours of work or, if no work is available, will be paid at least three (3) hours except when work is not available due to conditions beyond the control of the shelter.

Re: Recognition of Experience in the Hiring of Facility Support Workers

Both the Employer and the Union recognize that the Employer has had significant difficulty in hiring and retaining Facility Support Workers due to starting wage being lower than comparable employers. The Employer is required to place new Employees at the first step of the grid without being able to give recognition for their years of experience.

Notwithstanding that the Collective Agreement does not expire until March 31st, 2024, the Employer and Union agree that there is a sense of urgency to recruit and fill these positions to support the staff and clients within the Shelter and to make an immediate adjustment to base rates of pay rather than wait for this matter to be dealt with through the next round of collective bargaining. Therefore, the Employer and Union agree to the following:

1. Effective December 1st all new hires into Facility Support Worker positions will be assessed for their relevant experience and placed into the pay grid according to the years of relevant experience they have to a maximum of Step 5 at $20.44 per hour. They will then progress to next steps on the grid as per the Collective Agreement at their anniversary date.
2. All existing Facility Support Worker staff (casual and regular) will be assessed for their years of relevant experience prior to having been being hired to Strathcona Shelter Society and will be placed at the appropriate step in the grid to recognize this experience but will not be placed higher than Step 5 at $20.44. If currently above this rate, they will remain where they are and move upwards according to the Collective Agreement. Any adjustment will occur December 1st and the individual will then receive further adjustments on their anniversary date as per the Collective Agreement.

3. The Employer and Union agree they will communicate about this change to Employees with consistent messaging and will agree upon what this messaging shall be prior to information being sent out.

This Letter of Understanding shall form part of the Collective Agreement.
